

April 12th, 2022

The Historic Preservation Commission of the Town of Corydon, Indiana met in the Town Hall, 219 N. Capitol Avenue, Corydon, Indiana, on April 14th, 2022.

The members of the Commission present or absent were as follows:

Present:

Adam Burkhardt - Chairman

Barbara Scharrer – Member

Laura Renwick – Advisory Member

Absent:

Doug Castetter – Member

Janet Bischoff – Member

Tim Johnson – Vice Chairman

The meeting was called to order by Adam Burkhardt at 6:00 PM.

Everyone stood and recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Due to lack of a quorum, minutes were not approved.

The commission discussed the application from Tammy Seitz Gubler, owner of the home at 500 E. Chestnut. Adam explained that due to lack of a quorum, no decision could be made at this meeting. Adam, Barbra, and Laura said they saw no issues with the application. The commission asked Tammy if she was ok with the decision on her COA request being made at the next meeting. Tammy said she understood the necessity due to lack of quorum and was willing to wait.

Lance Teagarden, owner of 217 N. Oak street, and 219 N. Oak street, presented two requests. Lance proposed several updates to both properties. Adam again explained that due to the lack of a quorum, no decision could be made at this meeting. Adam, Barbra, and Laura said they saw no issues with either application. The commission asked Lance if he was ok with the decision on his COA request being made at the next meeting. Lance agreed to wait.

Bradley Briles and Jessica Warren, owners of 628 Farquar Avenue, presented two requests. Adam explained to them as well that due to the lack of a quorum, no decision could be made at the meeting. Adam, Barbra, and Laura said they saw no issues with either application. The members agreed that even though the proposed updates do not fall perfectly in line with the guidelines, it would bring the home closer to complying. The commission asked Bradley and Jessica if they were ok with the decision on their COA request being made at the next meeting. After a short discussion, Bradley and Jessica agreed.

Barbara made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Adam seconded the motion and the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 PM.
